

Background on Dan R. Kirby, D.V.M.

Bachelor of Science from TAMU – 1979, degree in Bio-Medical Science
Doctor of Veterinary Medicine 1984 – Cum Laude
1983-84 Honor Society of Agriculture Senior Student Award
Member Gamma Sigma Delta – Honor Society of Agriculture
Member of The Society of Phi Zeta – Eta Chapter – An honor society of veterinary medicine
Texas A&M Danny L. Davis Award
Texas A&M University, Bexar County VMA Auxiliary Award
1996 – Certificate of Achievement from the American College of Veterinary Internal Medicine
1998 – Alamo Heights Pet Clinic, Inc. received highest ratings and acceptance to AAHA

- A. Current Professional Activities
- 1. Practicing veterinarian for 28 years
 - 2. Concentrating on small animals, exotics, birds, extensive internal medicine and surgery cases
 - 3. Ultrasonography consultation practice for 18 years
 - 4. Practicing and consulting in Endoscopy
 - 5. Owner and director of Alamo Heights Pet Clinic, Inc. for 10 years
- B. Distinctive Contributions
- 1. Board member of Emergency Pet Clinic since it's inception
 - 2. Currently serving on the At Large Committee of the Animal Defense League
 - 3. Member of Veterinary Medical Association of Bexar County
 - 4. Member of Texas Veterinary Medical Association
 - 5. Member of American Veterinary Medical Association
 - 6. Member of The Governors Club, a men's business organization
 - 7. Past board member of Paws For Service
 - 8. Numerous speaking engagements annually in private and public schools, taking exhibits and "hands on" teaching aids
 - 9. Numerous TV appearances on PAX channel 2 and KENS channel 5 speaking about animal nutrition, geriatrics and wellness medicine for animals
 - 10. Currently co-hosting a weekly 1 hour question and answer program on KTSA AM 550.
 - 11. Integrating all measure of medicine, utilizing natural remedies and Nutritional Blood Test (NBT) promoting wellness, preventing disease and treating chronic conditions in animals
 - 12. Nutritional Analysis
 - a). Dr. Kirby is the Principal Distributor in the United States
 - b). Strategic Alliance Partner
 - c). On the Business Advisory Board
- C. Refining Techniques and Improving Methods of Practice
- 1. First to acquire Digital Radiography Technology in the San Antonio area
 - 2. Has had a mobile ultrasound consultation practice for 18 years
 - 3. Recently installed an animal rehabilitation water treadmill
 - 4. Consults with clients throughout the United States and Mexico

Dr. Kirby is married with 3 children. Interests and hobbies include photography, archeology, fishing, kayaking and basketball.